

Attract Participation and Increase Motivation of Young Male Language Learners

Speakers at the Love Language Conference Wednesday 2nd July 2008

Name and where you're based	Bev Whiteside, West Midlands
Job title and where you work	Development Coordinator – Languages and Sport, Youth Sport Trust and DCSF
Biography	I am a languages teacher and I spent 11 years teaching languages in a Sports College in the West Midlands. Prior to taking up the post of Development Coordinator – Languages and Sport for the Youth Sport Trust in January 2007, I had been Head of German and subsequently Head of Languages for five years. My role now is to support the network of Sports Colleges in developing ideas and strategies to use the specialism of sport to raise the profile of languages and increase take up at Key Stage 4.
Workshop title (if applicable)	Linking Languages and Sport – Engaging Learners
Workshop description (if applicable)	This workshop aims to illustrate how PE and Sport can link with languages to engage and motivate learners. There will be opportunities to explore how these links can be made and find out how some Sport and Languages Colleges have approached and developed their ideas.
Email (if applicable) *	bev.whiteside@youthsporttrust.org
Telephone (if applicable) *	07825 065183
Address (if applicable) *
Website (if applicable)	www.youthsporttrust.org

* Provide these if you are happy for the conference participants to contact you.

